

Coronavirus: information on vaccination in the Canton of Valais

Vaccination is free and voluntary.

When can I get vaccinated ?

- You are eligible if you are 12 years of age or older
- If you don't have a fever or any other Covid-19 symptoms
- If you don't have an allergy to any of the vaccine components (PEG). In case of doubt, please contact your treating physician
- If you are not in isolation or quarantine
- Pregnant women in the second or third trimester (upon written consent and after consulting a doctor for benefit-risk assessment)

How to get vaccinated ?

It is also possible to get vaccinated at some doctor's offices or pharmacies. To find out about registration, please contact the specific doctor or pharmacy by email/phone .

Vaccination is also available at the vaccination centres of Brig, Sion and Collombey by registering on <https://vs.covid-vaccin.ch>. Before starting the registration process, please have your health insurance card and mobile phone ready. If you are not comfortable with computers, please ask a friend or relative to help you, or call the hotline at +41 58 433 0 144.

All persons aged 16 and older can also get vaccinated without prior appointment at the centres of Brig, Sion and Collombey, subject to sufficient vacancies. To find the days and times available, please go to <https://vs.ch/coronavirus>.

How to vaccinate children between the ages of 12 and 15?

Parents wishing to register their child for vaccination should contact their paediatrician or physician directly. If the doctor doesn't provide the vaccination against COVID-19, children in this age group can get vaccinated at the following locations, by appointment only:

- Dr Simon Fluri (Viège) Medical Practice
- Vaccination Centre of Sion
- Multidisciplinary Paediatric Centre of the Chablais area of Valais (Monthey)

Registration on <https://vs.covid-vaccin.ch>

- Dr Jean-Michel Poncet (Monthey) Medical Practice; registration by email at jmponcetped@hotmail.com or by phone at 024 472 12 62
